

IET Journals

Our Journals portfolio offers a wealth of research and information in a wide range of engineering and technology fields.

We work in partnership with leading institutions, societies and organisations to deliver an Open Access Journal programme as part of our commitment to support the global scientific and research community.

The benefits of publishing in our internationally renowned publications include:

- Worldwide readership and database coverage
- Online submission with prompt and rigorous peer review
- Easy, online access to your research via the IET Digital Library
